Benjamin Jensen Appointed to The Connecticut Forum Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (July 15, 2013) – Business litigation lawyer Benjamin C. Jensen has been appointed to The Connecticut Forum's Board of Directors. A nonprofit organization serving Connecticut and beyond, The Forum provides live, unrehearsed panel discussions that feature renowned experts and celebrities. The mission of The Connecticut Forum is “to encourage the free and active exchange of ideas in Forums that inform, challenge, entertain, inspire and build bridges among all people and organizations in our community.”

“The Connecticut Forum provides a unique opportunity for people to hear from leaders in areas as diverse as psychology, comedy, and global warming and engage them in a dialogue,” said Mr. Jensen. “I’m excited to be a part of continuing this rich tradition The Forum has established.”

Forum events are held four times a year before audiences of 2,800 at The Bushnell in Hartford, Connecticut. Past participants include President Bill Clinton, Kurt Vonnegut, Salman Rushdie, Newt Gingrich, and Gloria Steinem. The 2013-2014 schedule features appearances by Martina Navratilova, Dan Savage, Bishop Gene Robinson, Malcolm Gladwell, Andrew Solomon, and Adam Savage. In addition, The Forum sponsors community outreach programs such as the Connecticut Youth Forum, which offers high school students the opportunity to connect with others across the spectrum of geography, race, sexual orientation, and economics, among other areas.

Mr. Jensen concentrates his litigation practice on matters involving intellectual property and protection of creditors’ rights, in addition to handling a broad variety of business litigation disputes on national and international levels. He has been listed as a Rising Star in Connecticut Super Lawyers® in the area of Business Litigation since 2010.
