Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Hartford Performs Board of Directors

Lisa B. Andrzejewski to serve on the board for 2015 to 2018

HARTFORD, CT (April 6, 2015) – Robinson+Cole lawyer Lisa B. Andrzejewski has been elected to the Board of Directors of Hartford Performs. Her appointment was announced at the board meeting in March.

Hartford Performs is a collaborative network of Hartford Public Schools, arts providers, community organizations, funders, and other supporters working together to deliver quality arts education programs to Hartford Public School students. As of the 2014-2015 school year, Hartford Performs supports arts integration programming for students in 28 Hartford public elementary schools.

Ms. Andrzejewski's practice is concentrated in the areas of construction law, commercial litigation, and surety and fidelity law. She is a member of the Connecticut Chapter of Professional Women in Construction and the Connecticut Society for Women Environmental Professionals. She is also a commissioner on the Town of Seymour Inland Wetlands Commission. She earned her J.D., with honors, from the University of Connecticut School of Law, with a certificate in energy and environmental law, and her B.A., magna cum laude, from Colby College.

About Hartford Performs

Developed out of the recommendations of the 2009 Hartford Public School's Task Force on the State of the Arts, Hartford Performs is constantly growing and evolving every year to work toward its vision of providing quality arts education programs to every Hartford Public School student through arts integration, in-school arts instruction, and out-of-school arts programming.
