Robinson & Cole Welcomes Partner Joseph B. White

BOSTON, MA (May 13, 2011) – Robinson & Cole LLP is pleased to announce that attorney Joseph B. White has joined the firm as a resident in the firm’s Providence, Rhode Island, office. Mr. White is a member of the firm’s Business Transactions Practice Group, focusing on corporate transactional work and emerging businesses. His transactional experience includes acquisitions, sales, mergers, recapitalizations, and joint ventures.

Mr. White counsels clients in connection with public and private debt and equity offerings, as well as state securities regulations and corporate governance matters. He also has significant experience representing investors and developers of real estate projects with regard to the construction of housing units, the leasing of office buildings, and the acquisition of industrial facilities. His clients include property and casualty insurance companies, financial institutions, manufacturing companies, and high technology developers.

Mr. White is a member of the Rhode Island Bar Association and the Rhode Island Municipal Court Judges Association. He is a municipal court judge for the Town of North Kingstown, is an appointee of Governor Lincoln Chafee on the board of governors of Higher Education, and serves on the board of trustees for the following organizations: Greater Providence YMCA, Gilbert Stuart Birthplace and Museum, USS Saratoga Museum Foundation, Rhode Island Republican State Central Committee, and Rhode Island Commodores. Mr. White received his J.D. from Syracuse University College of Law and his B.S., cum laude, in business administration from Providence College. He is admitted to practice in Rhode Island, Connecticut, and New York.
