Eric and Pat Daniels Co-Chair Interval House's 2016 Gala

Robinson+Cole partner Eric Daniels continues his long-standing support of Interval House's mission to help women and children who are victims of domestic violence

HARTFORD, CT (October 20, 2015) – Robinson+Cole lawyer Eric D. Daniels is co-chairing Interval House's 2016 Gala along with his wife, Pat Daniels. Mr. Daniels is an Honorary Director of Interval House's Board of Directors and a Founding Member of Interval House's Men Make a Difference, Men Against Domestic Violence Group.

This year's gala, themed "Step Up and Step Out" is taking place on April 2, 2016, at the Society Room of Hartford. Proceeds from the gala will help fund Interval House in its mission to end domestic violence.

This not the first time Mr. and Mrs. Daniels have teamed up to lead a major fundraising event. In 2010 and 2011, they served as auction co-chairs for HARC. Mr. Daniels dedicates his time and skills to many community organizations, and has previously led other major fundraising events for several Hartford-area nonprofits, including Hartford Hospital's signature fundraiser, the Black & Red, in January 2015. He also served as chair of the United Way of Central and Northeastern Connecticut's 2012 Community Campaign.

Mr. Daniels is chair of Robinson+Cole's Products Liability Group, and served as the firm's Managing Partner from 2000 to 2009.

About Interval House

Founded in 1977, Interval House has been making a difference in the lives of women and their children who experience psychological and physical abuse at the hands of their domestic partners. It is dedicated to providing services to prevent and break the cycle of family and intimate partner abuse, and strives to reach all persons at risk and to bring about social change.
