Robinson & Cole Announces Mentor of the Year Award Recipients

HARTFORD, CT (January 3, 2012) – Each year Robinson & Cole’s Mentor of the Year Award recognizes and honors associates, counsel, and partners throughout the firm for their outstanding guidance and encouragement of fellow attorneys in their pursuit of effective lawyering and professional growth. The nominees for this award, sponsored by the firm’s Professional Development Committee, are selected through a firmwide voting process. Mentoring is vital to the success and development of attorneys. Effective mentors provide critical insight, support, and advice on substantive as well as cultural issues and their mentees integrate and connect to the firm. Robinson & Cole is pleased to announce that this year’s awards go to the following attorneys:

Boston Office

John R. Bauer, business litigation counsel
Brian M. Flaherty, business transactions associate

Hartford Office

Britt-Marie K. Cole-Johnson, labor and employment associate
Gerald P. Dwyer, Jr., insurance partner
Matthew S. Spaeder, business transactions associate
Peter E. Strmiste, Jr., construction partner
Jeffrey J. White, business litigation partner

Metro New York Office

Megan E. Baroni, environmental and utilities associate
Steven L. Elbaum, real estate partner
Andrew L. Kramer, real estate partner
