Brian J. Wheelin Joins Board of Directors of Stamford Dollars for Scholars

STAMFORD, CT (July 10, 2013) – Robinson & Cole lawyer Brian J. Wheelin has been elected to the Board of Directors of Stamford Dollars for Scholars. The mission of the organization is to mobilize the local community to provide scholarship assistance to Stamford high school students who may otherwise miss the chance to pursue higher education. Stamford Dollars for Scholars recently awarded twenty scholarships at its annual awards ceremony.

“I am excited to join this vibrant organization that has already raised significant funds despite being relatively young,” said Mr. Wheelin. “It is inspiring to see how Dollars for Scholars can rally the community to assist local students with the challenge of financing a college education.”

Mr. Wheelin is a member of the firm’s business litigation group where he focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation. He represents both individuals and companies in matters encompassing business torts, contract breaches, and disputes related to employment, real estate, and intellectual property.
