Recent Happenings of the Construction Group

The construction lawyers at Robinson+Cole are committed to being leaders in the industry and staying on top of industry developments. In that regard, here are a few recent highlights that we are excited to share.

AWARDS AND POSITIONS

Construction Institute

Keane E. Aures has been recognized by the Construction Institute as an "Emerging Young Professional Leader." He will be honored at the Construction Institute Annual Meeting Awards Dinner on June 16, 2016. Mr. Aures has been involved with the Young Professionals' Council of the Construction Institute, made valuable contributions to the Membership Committee, and was invited to participate at the Visionaries Forum.

At Robinson+Cole, Keane concentrates his practice in the areas of construction law, commercial litigation, and surety and fidelity law.

Connecticut Surety Association

Peter E. Strniste Jr. was recently elevated to president of the Connecticut Surety Association. He has been involved with this group since 2004 and previously served as vice president and treasurer.

At Robinson+Cole, Peter concentrates his practice on construction litigation and transactional matters.

STAYING ON TOP OF THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY

Construction Group Retreat

On May 26, 2016, Robinson+Cole's Construction Group gathered for a retreat in Mystic, Connecticut, to discuss the latest construction industry developments in the areas of scheduling, insurance, and auditing. Robinson+Cole Managing Partner Stephen E. Goldman, and a variety of guest presenters joined us and provided insight and encouraged dialog in these critical areas.

The weather was perfect and what a great view!
