

DECEMBER 2011

Employee Rights Notice Posting Deadline Postponed to April 30, 2012

The effective date for posting the National Labor Relations Board's (NLRB) employee rights notice has been postponed again. The new implementation date for the NLRB Final Rule requiring employers to post notices of their employees' rights under the National Labor Relations Act is now April 30, 2012. The NLRB announced that the reason for the delay is to help facilitate the resolution of legal challenges that have been filed with respect to the rule.
