Please join us in congratulating

Sorell E. Negro

on being a finalist for the American Bar Association's National Outstanding Young Lawyer Award

Sorell, a lawyer in Robinson+Cole's Miami office whose practice concentrates on the litigation of real property and environmental disputes in the United States and internationally, was one of two second-place finalists for the National Outstanding Young Lawyer Award.

“Sorell is a rising star and has impressive accomplishments in her legal practice and in her commitments to the legal profession, legal scholarship, and community.”

— Dwight H. Merriam, Robinson+Cole partner and founder of the firm's Land Use Group

“Sorell is one of the most dedicated and hardworking lawyers that I have ever met. She excels in the practice of law and is building a national practice. She also shows laudable initiative, seizing opportunities wherever she sees them. She has quickly made a name for herself with the ABA, taking on leadership roles and even creating new committees and service projects.”

— Jeff White, Robinson+Cole litigation partner and chair of the Manufacturing Industry Group

THE NATIONAL OUTSTANDING YOUNG LAWYER AWARD

The National Outstanding Young Lawyer Award recognizes an ABA young lawyer in good standing who exhibits professional excellence; service to the profession and the bar; service to the community; and a reputation for, or the advancement of, legal ethics and professional responsibility. This national award is given to one young lawyer annually, and two finalists were also named this year.

Ms. Negro was nominated by the ABA Section of State and Local Government Law for this award. She has served as the section's continuing legal education coordinator since 2014, was selected as its delegate to the ABA Section of International Law's fall meeting in Buenos Aires in 2014, and co-founded its Young Lawyers Committee in 2013. Also, in 2013 she was awarded the section's Jefferson B. Fordham Up & Comers Award.
