Robinson+Cole Lawyers Named to CCADV's First 100 Plus Class of 2019

Dan Brody, Kathryn Mullin, Je'Quana Orr, and Evan Seeman recognized for improving the lives of domestic violence survivors throughout Connecticut

HARTFORD, CT (November 15, 2019) – Robinson+Cole lawyers Dan A. Brody, Kathryn N. Mullin, Je'Quana S. Orr, and Evan J. Seeman have been named to the Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CCADV) First 100 Plus Class of 2019 during the organization's 9th Annual Breakfast & Awards Ceremony on November 15, 2019 at the Hartford Marriott Downtown in Hartford, Connecticut.

The First 100 Plus Class of 2019 is comprised of leaders working to improve the lives of domestic violence survivors and their families in Connecticut. While each person is varied in his or her background and profession, each one has contributed to making a difference either statewide or within his or her local community.

Robinson+Cole

Mr. Brody and Ms. Orr are members of Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation Group. Mr. Brody focuses his practice on complex business litigation matters, government and internal investigations, corporate compliance, and criminal defense. Ms. Orr represents clients in all aspects of complex civil litigation.

Ms. Mullin and Mr. Seeman are members of the firm's Real Estate + Development Group. Ms. Mullin concentrates her practice on commercial real estate development, general real estate matters, affordable housing, and finance. Mr. Seeman concentrates his practice in land use and zoning, real property litigation, and municipal law.

In addition, Mallori Thompson, who recently served as a summer associate at Robinson+Cole, was also named to the CCADV First 100 Plus Class of 2019.

CCADV is the state's leading voice for victims of domestic violence and those agencies that serve them. It is a membership organization of Connecticut's 18 domestic violence service agencies that provide critical support to victims, including counseling, support groups, emergency shelter, court advocacy, safety planning, and lethality assessment, among other services. CCADV works to change social conditions through policy, advocacy, public awareness, and community education.
