Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to Connecticut Children's Medical Center Foundation Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (April 6, 2018) – The Connecticut Children's Medical Center Foundation, an organization dedicated to fundraising and stewarding donor gifts in support of Connecticut Children's Medical Center (Connecticut Children's), has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Christine E. Bromberg to its Board of Directors. Ms. Bromberg is a member of Robinson+Cole's Tax Group, where she represents clients in connection with a broad range of federal income tax matters.

Ms. Bromberg provides clients with practical advice and strategy regarding U.S. federal income taxes. Her practice has a particular emphasis on mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, workouts (in and out of bankruptcy), recapitalizations, divestitures, and spin-offs, as well as all forms of capital-raising activities. Ms. Bromberg is also co-chair of Robinson+Cole's Exempt Organizations Group and has experience with the federal and state tax laws that apply to tax-exempt organizations. She has counseled a variety of exempt organizations, both private foundations and public charities, with respect to structure and formation, charitable gift planning, transactional matters, and unrelated business taxable income strategy and planning.

The Connecticut Children's Medical Center Foundation brings together patient families, donors, community members, philanthropic partners, and others to raise the financial resources needed to invest in people, research, technology, and state-of-the-art equipment, to support Connecticut Children's in providing the care children need and deserve.
