Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to Connecticut Environmental Forum Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (November 26, 2018) – The Connecticut Environmental Forum (CEF), an organization that provides a forum for environmental professionals to share and exchange information and experiences on environmental matters and to learn about the latest issues regarding environmental regulation, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Emily C. Deans to its Board of Directors.

Ms. Deans is a member of Robinson+Cole's Environmental, Energy + Telecommunications Group, with clients in the areas of environmental, telecommunications, and utilities law. Ms. Deans represents clients such as telecommunications companies and commercial businesses before state regulatory agencies, including the Connecticut Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (PURA) and the Connecticut Siting Council, and local land use boards. She also monitors and reports on regulatory developments in the energy and utilities field throughout New England.

CEF was founded by a small group of environmental professionals seeking a way to acquire accurate regulatory knowledge in a timely fashion. The organization's core mission is to educate members on the important environmental issues that affect their communities and careers.
