Robinson+Cole Expands Business Transactions Practice

BOSTON, MA (March 4, 2019) – Robinson+Cole’s Business Transactions Group welcomes Barrett P. Wilson-Murphy as an associate in the firm’s Boston office. Mr. Wilson-Murphy advises clients on legal matters relating to middle market domestic and international financings and restructuring transactions.

Mr. Wilson-Murphy represents financial institutions, funds, finance companies and other providers of capital in various commercial loan transactions and in acquisition and private equity transactions. He has experience working with clients with respect to mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and compliance matters, and he counsels clients on a range of business transactions, including private equity, venture capital financing, mergers and acquisitions, and other general corporate matters. Mr. Wilson-Murphy advises his clients in debt finance transactions throughout the capital structure. He advises lower to mid-market private equity funds and family offices in connection with their investments, the management of portfolio companies and leveraged transactions. He also represents lenders in complex finance transactions, including senior, second lien, venture debt financings and mezzanine financings, on an asset-based, recurring revenue or cash–flow basis.
