Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Associated General Contractors of Connecticut Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (February 19, 2019) – Gregory R. Faulkner, chair of Robinson+Cole's Construction Group, has been elected to the board of directors of the Associated General Contractors of Connecticut (AGCCT), an organization dedicated to providing leadership and services to its members and to the commercial construction industry. Mr. Faulkner will serve two three-year board terms alongside board members representing construction industry entities from around the state.

Mr. Faulkner has served as local, national, and international counsel in all aspects of construction law for more than 25 years. He delivers a full-service approach to his practice, including selection of project delivery, preparation of bid documents, requests for proposals and qualifications, contract drafting, and negotiations. Mr. Faulkner also handles litigation in federal and state courts, as well as arbitration and mediation of all types of disputes.

Established in 1947 as the 28th chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America, AGCCT is the building division of the Connecticut Construction Industry Association, representing 150 commercial, industrial, and institutional construction contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers and professionals serving the Connecticut construction industry.
