Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to Hartford Performs Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (December 10, 2018) – Hartford Performs, an organization that brings visiting artists into Hartford Public Schools to teach curriculum in creative new ways, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Charles F. Modzelewski to its Board of Directors.

Mr. Modzelewski, a member of Robinson+Cole's Insurance + Reinsurance Group, represents commercial insurers in a broad range of coverage matters and disputes. He advises insurers on property insurance coverage obligations related to both commercial and homeowners insurance policies. Mr. Modzelewski also represents insurers when a dispute arises over coverage. He assists insurers with claims and lawsuits involving property damage due to natural disasters such as earthquakes, sinkholes, landslides, floods, hurricanes, and fires.

The mission of Hartford Performs is to connect all Hartford Public School students to quality arts experiences that advance student learning and deepen engagement in community. The organization's model emphasizes equity and equal access to ensure that students have planned, sequential, standards-based, high-quality arts experiences that support their academic learning as well as their social/emotional development. Almost 14,000 students in all 30 pre-k to grade 8 public schools in Hartford benefit from Hartford Performs each year.
