Robinson+Cole Lawyer to Lead Massachusetts Bar Association Section

Kathryn Rattigan appointed chair of Health Law Section Council

PROVIDENCE, RI (JULY 19, 2018) – The Massachusetts Bar Association (MBA) appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Kathryn M. Rattigan as chair of its Health Law Section Council. Ms. Rattigan is a member of Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation Group and Data Privacy + Cybersecurity Team.

Ms. Rattigan counsels clients on HIPAA compliance, including assisting with employee training, and providing guidance on the implementation of required and recommended Privacy Rule and Security Rule policies and procedures. She advises clients on data privacy and security, cybersecurity, and compliance with related state and federal laws. With regard to the MBA Health Law Section, Ms. Rattigan previously served as vice chair and is a frequent speaker for the MBA.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. A voluntary association, the MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.

The MBA Health Law Section provides a discussion platform to improve the professional competence of attorneys dealing with health care issues through seminars and publications; strives to bring together all members interested in the practice and delivery of health care.
