Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected Clerk of the Real Estate Bar Association for Massachusetts

BOSTON, MA (January 17, 2019) – The Real Estate Bar Association for Massachusetts (REBA) has elected Robinson+Cole lawyer Kendra L. Berardi to serve as its clerk for the 2019 term. Ms. Berardi is a member of Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation Group in which she focuses her practice on real estate litigation and complex commercial litigation.

Ms. Berardi advises and represents clients in a wide range of disputes related to real property, including land use, zoning, construction defects, utilities, fraudulent title and conveyances, bad faith and coverage, banking and lending, and commercial leasing. She also counsels clients on issues related to condominium formation, management, and operation, and mediates and litigates condominium-related disputes. Ms. Berardi litigates and counsels clients regarding complex business disputes, including claims for breach of contract and business torts such as fraud, misrepresentation, unfair and deceptive trade practices, and class action litigation.

For more than 150 years, REBA's mission has been to advance the practice of real estate law by creating and sponsoring professional standards, actively participating in the legislative process, creating educational programs and materials, and demonstrating and promoting fair dealing and good fellowship among members of the real estate bar.

As clerk, Ms. Berardi will be responsible for maintaining the official records of the organization. As an officer, she serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, which plans the work of the board by providing agenda and other guidelines for board actions. Ms. Berardi has served on the REBA Board of Directors since 2014 and is also co-chair of the Continuing Education Committee. In 2013, she helped to create the New Lawyers Section and served as its chair from 2014 to 2016.
