Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to New England Center and Home for Veterans Board of Directors

BOSTON, MA (August 10, 2018) – The New England Center and Home for Veterans (NECHV), an organization dedicated to equipping veterans who are facing or at-risk of homelessness with the tools for economic self-sufficiency and to providing them a path to achieve successful and dignified independent living, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer Amanda S. Eckhoff to its Board of Directors. Ms. Eckhoff is a member of Robinson+Cole's Finance Group.

Ms. Eckhoff leads the firm's Commercial Real Estate Finance Team. She represents institutional and private lenders, as well as borrowers, in connection with a broad range of real estate financing transactions and related matters. With regard to NECHV, Ms. Eckhoff spearheads a volunteer effort for Robinson+Cole employees to regularly spend an afternoon serving lunch to veterans and coordinates the firm's participation in the organization's annual Gift-A-Vet holiday gift-giving program.

A service and care provider for former military service men and women, the New England Center and Home for Veterans offers a broad array of programs and services that enable success, reintegration, meaningful employment, and independent living. Each day, NECHV serves between 380-400 meals to veteran residents and veterans accessing services through the organization's programs.
