Robinson+Cole Lawyer Appointed to NAIOP Connecticut & Suburban New York Board of Directors

STAMFORD, CT (March 12, 2018) – NAIOP Connecticut & Suburban New York, a chapter of NAIOP, the Commercial Real Estate Development Association, has appointed Robinson+Cole lawyer April F. Condon to its Board of Directors. Ms. Condon is a member of the firm's Real Estate + Development Group.

Mr. Condon focuses her practice on commercial real estate law. She has vast experience handling real estate leasing, sales, and acquisitions. Ms. Condon represents tenants, owners, and developers in connection with office, commercial, retail, and industrial leases throughout the United States. She has extensive experience in structuring, negotiating, documenting, and closing complex and varied real estate transactions. In addition, Ms. Condon has been involved in several significant real estate development projects and joint ventures in Connecticut.

NAIOP is the leading organization for developers, owners, and related professionals in office, industrial, retail, and mixed-use real estate. NAIOP comprises 19,000 members in North America. The organization advances responsible commercial real estate development and advocates for effective public policy. NAIOP was formerly referred to as the National Association for Industrial and Office Parks but dropped the words behind its acronym in 2009 as they no longer reflected its current membership composition.
