Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected Fellow of National Insurance Coverage Organization

Rhonda Tobin joins American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel

HARTFORD, CT (May 11, 2017) – Robinson+Cole lawyer Rhonda J. Tobin has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel (ACCEC). For more than 25 years, Ms. Tobin has concentrated her practice in the areas of insurance and reinsurance coverage, extracontractual liability, and professional liability.

For its membership, the ACCEC seeks lawyers who are distinguished for their skill, experience, and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of insurance coverage and extracontractual law and who are dedicated to excellence in this area of practice.

Ms. Tobin's insurance coverage practice includes the litigation, arbitration, and mediation of a broad range of coverage issues under commercial, professional, directors and officers, and miscellaneous errors and omissions policies, including claims for liability and property, personal lines, or extracontractual liability. Ms. Tobin represents both primary and excess insurers in coverage litigation and reinsurance disputes. She has significant trial experience in both state and federal courts.

In addition to being a member of Robinson+Cole's Insurance + Reinsurance Group, Ms. Tobin is co-chair of the Litigation Section and a member of the firm's Managing Committee.

ACCEC is a national organization that comprises almost 300 preeminent lawyers involved in coverage and extracontractual matters, with Fellows representing both policyholders and insurers as well as honorary members from academia. Established in 2012, the college is focused on the creative, ethical, and efficient adjudication of insurance coverage and extracontractual disputes, peer-provided scholarships, professional coordination, and the improvement of the relationship between and among its diverse members.
