Robinson+Cole Lawyer Co-Chairs Fair and Impartial Courts Committee of Connecticut Bar Association

Nuala E. Droney selected to co-chair committee tasked with investigating issues that undermine the independence and fairness of the judicial system

HARTFORD, CT (September 10, 2015) – Robinson+Cole lawyer Nuala E. Droney has been selected to co-chair the Fair and Impartial Courts Committee of the Connecticut Bar Association.

The Connecticut Bar Association established the Fair and Impartial Courts Committee to assist federal and state judges in instances where they are confronted by systemic attacks on their proper functions and to help defend them from unfair and inappropriate criticism or assault.

Ms. Droney is a partner in Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation Group and the chair of the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation Team. She is also a member of the White-Collar Defense and Corporate Compliance Team and the Data Privacy + Security Team. Ms. Droney represents clients in complex litigation, including patent, trade secret, antitrust, unfair trade, fraud, computer crimes, and contract disputes. Her courtroom experience ranges from federal and state jury and bench trials to contested hearings, including Markman hearings. She also maintains a criminal practice, representing clients in government investigations.
