Robinson & Cole Utilities and Environmental Lawyer Appointed Chair of Connecticut Bar Association's Public Utilities Section

Hartford — July 14, 2006 — Robinson & Cole Utilities and Environmental lawyer, Joey Lee Miranda, has been appointed to begin a two year term as Chair of the Connecticut Bar Association (CBA) Public Utilities Section as she ends her term as chair of CBA's Environmental Law Section.

Ms. Miranda concentrates her practice in utilities matters, environmental, and toxic tort, including litigation, transactional and regulatory representation, and counseling. Ms. Miranda regularly appears before the Connecticut Department of Public Utility Control and the Connecticut Siting Council on utility, telecommunications, and energy-related matters. She also handles administrative appeals of agency decisions to Connecticut courts.

Founded in 1845, Robinson & Cole has more than 220 attorneys and over 250 professional staff in eight offices, who serve regional, national, and global business clients in traditional practices such as corporate, financial services, intellectual property, utilities, environmental, land use, real estate development, insurance and litigation, as well as in emerging areas of the law like crisis management, bioterrorism and e-commerce.
