American Red Cross Elects Jacqueline Pennino Scheib to Board of Directors

HARTFORD, CT (May 22, 2014) – The American Red Cross Connecticut Chapter has elected Robinson+Cole lawyer Jacqueline Pennino Scheib to its Board of Directors.

The American Red Cross helps Connecticut residents prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies. It serves more than 3.5 million Connecticut residents in 168 towns in Hartford, Fairfield, Litchfield, Middlesex, New Haven, New London, Tolland, and Windham counties, plus Fishers Island, New York, with services provided by a small paid staff and a corps of more than 3,000 volunteers.

Jacqueline Pennino Scheib is a partner with the law firm of Robinson+Cole, where she leads the Intellectual Property and Technology Law Group. Prior to joining Robinson+Cole, Ms. Scheib worked for a large New York-based law firm and served as a law clerk to two Connecticut Supreme Court justices. She has a bachelor of arts degree from Franklin and Marshall College and a juris doctor degree, with honors, from the University of Connecticut School of Law. She is actively involved as a board member of a number of professional organizations, including the Crossroads Venture Group and the Connecticut Chapter of the MIT Enterprise Forum. A resident of West Hartford, Ms. Scheib is very involved in her community, including as a past Trustee of The Children's Museum and as a coach for elementary and middle school teams competing in Odyssey of the Mind.
