Jeffrey White Appointed Corporator of Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center Foundation

HARTFORD, CT (March 3, 2014) – Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center Foundation has named Robinson & Cole lawyer Jeffrey J. White a Corporator. Saint Francis Foundation operates exclusively to advance the charitable, scientific, and educational purposes of the hospital through relationship building, community visibility, and fundraising.

“I am excited to join the ranks of Saint Francis Corporators acting as a goodwill ambassador for the hospital within the community,” said Mr. White. “Corporators are instrumental in advancing the hospital’s mission of providing skilled and compassionate care, and I am proud to be a part of helping them achieve that worthy goal.”

Mr. White is a partner at Robinson & Cole who handles trials and appeals in courts around the country, with a particular emphasis on matters involving manufacturers and distributors. In addition to his new role as a Saint Francis Corporator, Mr. White serves as an officer on the Board of Directors of the New England Air Museum, an officer on the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society, and is a past member of the Board of Directors of the Center for First Amendment Rights, Inc.
