Robinson+Cole Continues to Expand National Bankruptcy Practice and Grow Wilmington Presence

Jamie L. Edmonson Joins as a Partner in Wilmington, Delaware

Wilmington, DE (June 4, 2019) – Robinson+Cole (R+C) is pleased to announce the addition of Jamie L. Edmonson to the firm's growing Bankruptcy + Reorganizations practice. She joins as partner in the Wilmington, Delaware office, from Venable LLP, where she was partner-in-charge of the office.

"The continued growth of our Bankruptcy + Reorganization Practice Group is one of our firm's key strategic objectives, as is the expansion of our presence in Wilmington. Consistent with these objectives, we are extraordinarily fortunate to have the opportunity to add Jamie, whose practice will have so many synergies with our existing bankruptcy, corporate and litigation practices," said R+C Managing Partner Stephen E. Goldman. "Jamie is also an established leader in the Delaware bar, and we look forward to working with her to continue to expand our Wilmington office."

Edmonson joins R+C following a significant expansion of the firm's bankruptcy practice in January when R+C welcomed five attorneys and opened new offices in Philadelphia and Wilmington. Natalie D. Ramsey, Mark A. Fink and Davis Lee Wright, all of whom practice bankruptcy in Delaware, joined as partners, bringing their decades of experience in bankruptcy, corporate reorganization and litigation matters throughout the United States.

"Joining Robinson+Cole allows me to work with a well-regarded national bankruptcy and reorganization team in providing exceptional service to my clients, including former colleagues Mark Fink and Davis Wright, from our time together at Skadden," said Edmonson. "The firm's commitment to growing and developing its Delaware office was critically important to me."

For more than 20 years, Edmonson has focused her practice on corporate reorganizations and bankruptcy. She has represented secured and unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, public and non-public debtor corporations and asset purchasers in bankruptcy and restructuring matters. Her clients have hailed from numerous industries including information technology, retail, food, energy, construction, real estate, telecommunications, and manufacturing. Ms. Edmonson began her practice in California, and she is a member of both the Delaware and California bars.
