Robinson+Cole Lawyer Linn Freedman Among Health Data Management's Top 50 Healthcare IT Professionals in US

PROVIDENCE, RI (December 16, 2015) – Linn Foster Freedman, chair of Robinson+Cole's Data Privacy + Security Team, has been recognized by Health Data Management as one of 50 Top Healthcare IT professionals.

Health Data Management says its 50 Top Healthcare IT Experts list recognizes "some of the guiding lights of the industry. Some have worked to advance the industry for nearly half a century, while others are newer voices who have taken on the industry's new challenges. All are worthy of mention as a sample of those who are advancing the important work of healthcare IT." Ms. Freedman is one of four lawyers named to the list.

Ms. Freedman practices in data privacy and security law, and complex litigation. She has assisted clients in the health care industry with compliance with all state and federal privacy and security laws and regulations, as well as emergency data breach response, mitigation, government investigations, and litigation. Ms. Freedman is experienced in providing counsel to health care organizations and regional health information organizations related to the interoperability of electronic health records. She has litigated complex cases, including privacy cases and class action data breach litigation, in state, federal, and appellate courts. She is the creator, editor, and an active author of the Data Privacy + Security Insider blog, a frequent speaker at national conferences, and a resource for media outlets on data privacy and security issues.

For more than 14 years, Health Data Management, a publication of SourceMedia, has been the leading source for news and in-depth analysis on using information technology to achieve business goals and improve the quality of care, and a trusted resource for critical information to help senior executives make the right decisions in a highly competitive market.
