HARTFORD, CT (June 14, 2011) – Robinson & Cole welcomes summer interns Jasmine Granville and Shanique Walker, students at the Law and Government Academy at Hartford High School and alumni of the University of Connecticut School of Law/Robinson & Cole LLP Summer Law Institute. Through the internship, Shanique and Jasmine will experience work done in various departments of the firm as they take on projects and assist and observe attorneys and paraprofessionals.

The Institute, hosted at the Law and Government Academy at Hartford Public High School, is designed to inspire high school students of diverse backgrounds to consider a career in the law and to prepare them to navigate obstacles to obtaining such careers.
