Robinson+Cole Goes Red to Support Women's Heart Health

Lawyers and staff wore red and donated money to support the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women initiative

HARTFORD, CT (March 13, 2015) – Robinson+Cole participated in National Wear Red Day on February 6, 2015, to raise funds to fight cardiovascular disease, the number one killer of women. By donating five dollars or more and wearing a piece of red clothing or an accessory—a red pin, a red tie, or red socks—those who took part could also wear jeans that day. The firm raised a total of $900 for the American Heart Association from Wear Red Day across the firm's offices and a chili con carnival in the Stamford office.

The American Heart Association launched Go Red for Women in 2003 to save lives and to raise awareness of heart disease in women. Learn more at <https://www.goredforwomen.org/>.
