2018 Cyber Incident & Breach Trends Report “All Bad”

The Internet Society's Online Trust Alliance just released its "2018 Cyber Incident & Breach Trends Report," which says "2018—Some Better, Some Worse, All Bad." That's our experience, too. Here are the highlights from the report. Read more

U.S. Cyber Command Issues Warning About Microsoft Outlook Vulnerability

Hackers are targeting U.S. government networks, according to U.S. Cyber Command, which says there is a vulnerability of CVE-2017-1174, which is a two year old flaw in Microsoft Outlook that is being used by attackers to install remote access Trojans and other malware. Read more

Connecticut Budget Includes Insurance Data Security Law

For those of you who don't know, a fun fact is that Robinson+Cole is one of the oldest law firms in Connecticut, and among our claims to fame is that we represented Mark Twain and Helen Keller. We are quite proud of our history and our reputation, and rightfully so. We are steeped in Connecticut law, and we follow it closely, even when it is buried in the 580-page Connecticut budget bill! Yes, on page 288 of the budget bill is the Connecticut Insurance Data Security Law, which is applicable to our insurance clients. Read more

ULC Model State Drone Legislation to be Discussed

The Uniform Law Commission (ULC) is set to meet this week and next in Anchorage, Alaska to discuss and vote on model state legislation concerning drones. The ULC's proposed legislation is an attempt to recognize the fact that drones can be transformative to search and rescue, inspection and logistics, but that when misused, a drone could violate the rights to privacy and the quiet enjoyment of private property.
