Texas Court System Hit with Ransomware

The Office of Court Administration in Texas (OCA) confirmed late last week that it is the victim of a ransomware attack. The OCA stated that it would not pay the ransom. "OCA was able to catch the ransomware and limit its impact, and will not pay any ransom...Work continues to bring all judicial resources and entities back online." Read more

PRIVACY TIP #239

Hackers Know How to Embarrass You

As hackers continue to find new ways to use old scams that have been successful, a recently reported example of hackers trying to use sensitive data against users is the Maze group, which hit two plastic surgery groups with ransomware, one in Seattle and the other in Nashville. This week's privacy tip covers the recent trend. Read more
