Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford Board of Trustees

HARTFORD, CT (June 21, 2018) – The Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford has elected Robinson+Cole lawyer Brian D. Nichols to its Board of Trustees. Mr. Nichols is a member of Robinson+Cole's Health Law Group, where he represents and advises hospitals, physician groups, nursing homes, community providers, and other health care entities on a range of transactional and regulatory health care law issues.

With eight locations throughout Greater Hartford, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford serve more than 5,000 of the region's most needy children and teens every year, providing an array of youth development programs designed to put them on the path to great futures.

Robinson+Cole has long-standing involvement with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford. The firm conducts an annual holiday gift drive that supports the organization's northwest site. Additionally, Robinson+Cole offers summer internships to members of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford. Mr. Nichols has actively been involved in the coordination of both of these initiatives.
