Robinson+Cole Lawyers Named to CCADV's First 100 Plus Class of 2022

Alexandra Kritzman, Sandra Lautier, Stephani Roman, and Annecca Smith recognized for improving the lives of domestic violence survivors throughout Connecticut

HARTFORD, CT (April 19, 2022) – Robinson+Cole lawyers Alexandra Kritzman, Sandra Marin Lautier, Stephani A. Roman, and Annecca H. Smith have been named to the Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CCADV) First 100 Plus Class of 2022 during the organization's 11th Annual Breakfast & Awards Ceremony on April 8, 2022, at the Hartford Marriott Downtown in Hartford, Connecticut.

The First 100 Plus Class of 2022 is comprised of leaders working to improve the lives of domestic violence survivors and their families in Connecticut. These lawyers, with varied backgrounds and practices, have all made vital contributions to their state and local communities.

Kritzman and Roman are members of Robinson+Cole's Insurance + Reinsurance Group. Kritzman focuses her practice on representing commercial insurers in a broad range of coverage matters and disputes. Roman's practice is centered on representing domestic and foreign D&O and E&O insurers in coverage matters.

A member of Robinson+Cole's Business Litigation Group, Lautier represents clients in complex commercial litigation, employee and group benefits litigation, and a variety of labor and employment law matters. Smith is a member of the firm's Bankruptcy + Reorganizations Group. She concentrates her practice on bankruptcy and corporate restructuring matters.

CCADV is the state's leading voice for victims of domestic violence and those agencies that serve them. It is a membership organization of Connecticut's 18 domestic violence service agencies that provide critical support to victims, including counseling, support groups, emergency shelter, court advocacy, safety planning, and lethality assessment, among other services. CCADV works to change social conditions through policy, advocacy, public awareness, and community education.
