Robinson+Cole Lawyer Elected to YWCA Hartford Region Board of Directors

Britt-Marie Cole-Johnson serving to further mission of eliminating racism and empowering women

HARTFORD, CT (December 17, 2019) – Robinson+Cole Labor, Employment, Benefits + Immigration Group lawyer Britt-Marie Cole-Johnson, has been elected to serve on the board of directors for the YWCA Hartford Region. Ms. Cole-Johnson's term begins January 2020.

Ms. Cole-Johnson focuses her practice on counseling private sector employers, ranging from Fortune 500 and NYSE companies, multi-national corporations and nonprofit organizations, to educational institutions and manufacturers, in all areas of employment law with an emphasis on handling high-risk personnel issues and managing and conducting highly sensitive workplace investigations as well as compliance and training. She is a trained workplace investigator and an Association of Workplace Investigators (AWI) Certificate Holder. Ms. Cole-Johnson also serves on the board of directors and is a faculty member for AWI, in addition to being the chair of the firm's Workplace Investigations Team.

Ms. Cole-Johnson has been actively involved in the YWCA Hartford Region for more than nine years and has previously served as Chair of the Board of Directors, the Governance Committee, and the Nominating Committee. She was also event Co-chair for the 19th Annual 'In the Company of Women' Luncheon.

YWCA Hartford Region is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all through advocacy, programs and services. The organization promotes change at a systemic level and through improved lives for individuals and families in the community.
